

Mas des Cabres 'Estive' Blanc 2022 - Pays d'Oc, France

Retail: $14.95 | Sale: $13.45

Located in the foothills of the Cévenne mountains, Mas des Cabres makes unique wines that reflect their specific limestone and red clay terroir, located where the Languedoc comes together with the Rhône Valley. Their philosophy is to minimize intervention from the vines to the cellar, so as to let the wines express their true nature. The name Mas des Cabres comes from the name of the central lieu-dit where the vineyards are situated. Cabres is the Occitan word for the goats that were bred in this area in the 18th century. The domain has been farming organically since 2019. The nose reveals notes of pineapple, lemon and pear. The well-balanced palate is mineral rich and retains much freshness. 30% Viognier, 30% Vermentino, 30% Roussanne, 10% Muscat Petits Grains

Mas des Cabres 'Terres D'Aspères' Rouge 2021 - Pays d'Oc, France

Retail: $14.95 | Sale: $13.45

Mas des Cabres is a family wine estate where eight generations of winegrowers have succeeded one another. The family's presence dates back to at least 1760 in Aspères. Since 2004, Florent Boutin has taken over the estate. The grapes that make this wine come from the Paladasses and Roumanières vineyards and were planted between 1981 and 2013 at an altitude of 70-100 meters. This is a great classic wine from Languedoc. The Syrah and Grenache greatly reflect the Aspères terroir and show notes of blackberry and scrublands. 75% Syrah, 25% Grenache

Skinner 'Native Red' 2020 - El Dorado County, California

Retail: $21.95 | Sale: $19.76

The contemporary story of Skinner Vineyards and Winery began with a chance encounter that would ultimately reveal six generations of family legacy built on the dreams of a Scottish immigrant and miner during the California Gold Rush with a passion for winemaking in the rich foothills of El Dorado County. The Skinner Winery embodies the adventurous spirit exemplified by James Skinner by blending old-world skill and traditions with advanced environmental opportunities that protect and respect our land and future. A tribute to the original brand name - J. Skinner Native Wine & Brandy - dating back to 1861, this red is fun, flirty, and mouth watering with notes of raspberry, dried herbs, and orange peel. Blend of Petit Bouschet, Mission, Trousseau, Carignan, Cinsault, Grenache, Counoise, Mourvèdre, Zinfandel, Marsanne, Viognier.

Brandborg 'BenchLands' Pinot Noir 2021 - Umpqua Valley, Oregon

Retail: $24.95 | Sale: $22.45

Terry and Sue Brandborg began their search for a cool, coastal climate terroir that would produce harmonious, distinct wines. Their journey of discovery led them to Elkton, Oregon, in Oregon's Umpqua Valley. With passion and a steadfast belief in the quality of their chosen site, they planted 5 acres of pinot noir. Their spectacular property rises to 1100 feet with a direct sightline to the Umpqua River and the Oregon coast range. This area boasts a long frost free growing season, with cool temperate conditions lasting until late fall, which allows the grapes to hang on the vine longer and develop truly complex flavors. Cherry, ripe plums and some spice notes on the nose with strawberry, red beets, and blueberry on the palate. The finish is long and full, with all of the components lingering upon your palate. 100% Pinot Noir
